

Picture posed by model

Some children need extra protection from flu

Does your child have asthma, a neurological condition, heart disease or diabetes?

Having these or other long-term conditions can make children more vulnerable to serious complications of flu

Contact your GP to discuss whether your child would benefit from having a free, seasonal flu jab

www.nhs.uk/flu